My Beloved Judy,
The highlight of news from your two I mailed letters dated Aug 2 and 3 was Aaron's letter informing you that he's on his way to the South Pacific. Recently I received a letter from Aaron stating that he expected to go overseas and then he writes there is a possibility he wasn't how the question seems to be decided and I'm regret that he is going in the opposite direction from where I am, mainly because it might mean being overseas longer etc. difficult was what's going to occur in the future because overnight the events of the war can change.

I only had one hundred pages to finish your book and I barely able to do so because I've been receiving editions of the "New York Post" and the "which I enjoy reading plus the "Stars and Stripes" after that I write you and other letters I may have to write. After I complete all that I don't have a desire to do much more reading even though I'm very anxious to finish the book.

Darling now all day I can see you at Long Beach resting on the sand or swimming in the water and my bias is shut across daily. Be careful, as I have excellent observations.

ad. a few drizzles of rain today but now is clearing up. All my love to you sweetheart and my
